

Marc joined Thomas, Thomas & Hafer in June of 2016 and focuses his practice on Pennsylvania Workers' Compensation defense.

In over ten years of practice, Marc has handled numerous complicated Workers' Compensation cases. He has extensive experience in aggressively representing employers, insurance carriers, self-insured's and third-party administrators in Workers' Compensation matters. He also has experience in complex civil litigation and in the defense of personal injury claims.

Marc received his Juris Doctorate from the Penn State Dickinson School of Law where he also earned an International, Comparative and Foreign Law Certificate. He was awarded the CALI Excellence for the Future Award for excellent achievement in Applied Human Rights Research. While in law school, Marc was named a Public Interest Advocate for his pro bono work in the Family Law Clinic. Marc was also a member of the law school's International Moot Court Team.
