

PAUL J. CROOKS

Paul was born and raised in London, England. After attending Duke University on an exchange program, Paul emigrated to the United States. Following law school at the University of North Carolina, Paul relocated to Pittsburgh, where he has spent his entire legal career.

Over the course of his legal career, Paul has handled workers' compensation cases exclusively on behalf of employers, litigating cases up to the level of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. While previously employed as staff counsel at Royal & Sun Alliance, he was named workers' compensation litigator of the year.

Paul resides in Pittsburgh. His interests include cooking, golf, and he is a passionate Manchester United fan.
