Arthur has practiced law for over 40 years, concentrating in civil and administrative litigation, with a focus on medical malpractice, health care, and professional licensure defense, representing hospitals, physicians, long term care facilities, nurses, physician extenders, and mental health professionals.

He has served as lead counsel in hundreds of cases involving a variety of complex medical issues in fields such as neurosurgery, orthopedics, obstetrics and gynecology, dermatology, internal and emergency medicine, and licensing disciplinary actions involving allegations of substance use, impairment, boundary issues, improper prescribing, and fraudulent conduct.

After graduating law school, Arthur spent a year in Jerusalem, Israel, drafting environmental statutes and regulations for the nation's Environment Ministry. After completing this, Arthur returned to his hometown of Harrisburg, PA, where he served as an attorney for the Pennsylvania Board of Medicine, prosecuting physician disciplinary cases.

Prior to joining Thomas, Thomas & Hafer, LLP in 2007, Arthur was a partner with Duane Morris, LLP (1985 – 2002) and Kelly, Hoffman & Goduto, LLP (2002 – 2007).
