Jim Tinnyo is a partner in the Harrisburg office of Thomas, Thomas and Hafer, LLP, and also serves as the Chair of the firm's Workers' Compensation Section.

Jim has practiced workers' compensation law in Pennsylvania since 1987 and has litigated workers' compensation cases before numerous workers' compensation judges, the Workers' Compensation Appeal Board, Commonwealth Court and the Pennsylvania Supreme Court.

Mr. Tinnyo represents a multitude of insurance carriers, third party administrators and employers in workers' compensation litigation throughout the Commonwealth. He is a frequent lecturer on workers' compensation law, including the Pennsylvania Bar Institute's "Tough Problems" and Fall Section meeting seminars. Mr. Tinnyo is author of "Pennsylvania Workers' Compensation Law: A New Requirement For Establishing Causation in Off-Premises Injuries," April 2004, Pennsylvania Bar Quarterly.

Jim was also the content review editor of the chapters on workers' compensation in the Pennsylvania Law Encyclopedia, 2006 and 2018 editions.
