Since joining the firm in 1985, Randy has successfully handled a broad mix of medical malpractice and professional licensure, workers' compensation, civil rights and general insurance litigation.

Following law school, Randy served two years as a law clerk to The Honorable R. Dixon Herman of the United States District Court for the Middle District of Pennsylvania. From 1981 to 1983, Randy was a Deputy Attorney General for the Pennsylvania Department of Justice. He subsequently became a Deputy Attorney General with the Pennsylvania Office of Attorney General from 1981 to 1983. In 1983, Randy was appointed Senior Deputy Attorney General and Middle Region Chief of the Torts Litigation Section by Attorney General LeRoy Zimmerman.

Quite active in professional and community matters, Randy served two terms as a member of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court Disciplinary Committee and has been a member of the Camp Hill School Board since 1991, including two years as President. He is also a member and past Chair of the Harrisburg Area Community College Board of Delegates. He is a former Vice President of the Wilkes University Alumni Association and former member of the Wyoming Seminary Prep School President's Council.
