Joe was born in Allentown, Pennsylvania and raised in Bethlehem. In his early years of practice, Joe concentrated on civil arbitrations, trials, and appeals. He served for a number of years as one of the only defense attorneys on the Board of Governors of the Pennsylvania Trial Lawyers Association. Joe handles complex civil defense litigation across a broad spectrum of liability areas including motor vehicle, premises liability, products liability and natural gas distribution law.

Since 1982, Joe has been a member of the Bar Association of Lehigh County, where he has served on the Board of Directors and various committees including the legislative, medical and Bench-Bar liaison committees. In 1989, Joe served on the committee for the formation of The Donald E. Wieand American Inn of Courts and serves on the Civil Rules Committee for the Bar Association of Lehigh County. Joe became President of the Bar Association of Lehigh County in 2005, its Centennial Celebration Year and co-authored a chapter on the history of members who served in the armed forces from World War I to the Iraq War.

Joe also serves as a mentor for the Bar Association of Lehigh County in the areas of civil litigation, appeals, and ethics, and has served as a mediator and arbitrator in private litigation matters. He is also an arbitrator for the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.
