

Ryan is an associate in the Washington D.C. office where he works on a variety of general liability matters. Before joining the firm and while in law school, Ryan worked at the Northampton Court of Common Pleas and the Navy-Marine Court of Criminal Appeals, represented undergraduate students in magisterial court, assisted veterans in receiving disability benefits, and served as an advocate for Penn State's Phillip C. Jessup Moot Court team. Ryan was also active in the William Penn Chapter of the professional legal fraternity Phi Alpha Delta, serving as the Marshal for the chapter during the 2019-2020 school year.
