Chelsea A. Williams is an associate in TT&H's Philadelphia office and is a member of the Firm's general liability practice group. Her practice areas include premises liability, transportation liability and construction defects.

Prior to joining TT&H, Chelsea worked at a mid-size insurance defense firm in Philadelphia, defending insured and self-insured entities in premises liability and motor vehicle liability matters. She also has experience as Plaintiff's counsel at a national Plaintiff's law firm, representing clients who had been injured. After graduating from Rutgers Law School, Chelsea clerked for the Honorable Judge Malestein in Cumberland County, New Jersey.

During law school, Chelsea participated in several legal clinics including immigration, civil practice, and prisoner re-entry where she gained hands on experience representing clients in various legal matters. She additionally taught Constitutional Law to High School students in Camden, New Jersey, as a Marshall Brennan Fellow.
